

Discussion Points

1. Have you examined the mission, values and vision in relation to today's challenges and opportunities?
2. Is each of these vital statements appropriate and forceful in driving strategies, objectives, action plans, opportunities and obligations?
3. Are your mission, values and vision prominent elements of decision making at all board meetings?
4. Are your mission, values and vision statements annually reviewed at the board retreat, or at a strategic planning workshop?
5. Do you test policy and strategy decisions by asking how/if they will strengthen the hospital's ability to achieve its mission and vision?
6. Do you regularly review the progress of strategies and objectives, and ensure their fit with your mission and vision?
